In The Spotlight With Healthy Addictions

An addiction is stronger than a craving or an occasional desire for something.

An addiction is having a dependency or habit for a particular thing or activity.

OPPORTUNITY

- Do you know someone who's healthy addictions is positively making a difference in their community but no one knows about them or their healthy habits?
- Would you like to share their story with our magazine family, Author Addicts?

REQUEST

- Option #01 - Record yourself describing their story and upload your description of them on your Youtube Channel, complete the referral form & email both your form & video URL to: Burgundyink@outlook.com
- Option #02 - Type or write their story in full detail, complete the referral form & email both your form & letter to: Burgundyink@outlook.com

BENEFITS

- Supporting the campaign of placing a broader spotlight on healthy addictions
- Enrolled in a family of authors and lyricists passionate about networking & community development

Who We Are? Author Addicts

What's Our Mission? Spreading ablaze to unknown figures with healthy addictions

Spotlight Referral Form

Section #01 needs to be completed by the one telling the story.

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone #: _____

City/State: _____

Method of Submission: _____

Section #02 is about the unknown figure/person in your story.

Name: _____

What's their addiction? _____

When did you notice it? _____

How is their addiction healthy? _____

Should they quit the addiction? _____

Thank you for noticing and ablazing the healthy habits of members from your community. Some of these stories are so fascinating that we often use the entries for future contests & publications.

Author ADDICT Magazine

"Writing is my addiction, therefore I must indulge."
-Lavaughn T. Simmons